Public Administration with an Attitude

H. George Frederickson

Table of Contents

Book One: The Founders and the Founding Concepts of Public Administration
Alexander Hamilton: Embrace Your Inner Federalist ..................6
Max Weber and George, Together at Last ...............................14
Herbert Simon and Dwight Waldo:
Truly the Giants of Public Administration ............................17
How I Became Waldonian ................................................21
Harlan Cleveland: The Prophet of Public Administration .............24
A Weber for Our Time: The Life and Work of Fred W. Riggs ..........27
Lynton Keith Caldwell:
The Man Who Invented Environmental Policy ....................31

Book Two: Leadership in Public Administration
Getting Leadership Straight .................................................35
Public Administration and Quiet Leadership ..........................37
Public Administration as Gardening ...................................40
Book Three: Real Public Administration Leaders
David O. Cooke: Mayor of the Pentagon ...........................................43
John Gilbert Winant and British-American
  Relations in a Time of Crisis .....................................................46
Honor in the Public Life ...............................................................49
William Armstrong: Public Service Leadership .............................51
Jesse Fraser: A Radical Bureaucrat in the Stacks ............................54
Simon David Freeman: The California Electricity Czar ....................57
A Real Hero .................................................................................62
Terrel Bell: Repositioning a Political Leader ....................................65
Edward J. Curran: The Bureaucrat
  Who Would Not Be Bashed .........................................................68
Gloria Flora: Exit and Voice .........................................................71
Joseph Santos Ileto: A Citizen Twice ...........................................74

Book Four: Modern Public Organization and Management
Look, Public Administration Ain’t Rocket Science .........................76
Public Sector High Reliability .........................................................78
High Reliability and Freedom from Terror .....................................82
Terrorism: The Folly of Experience and the Wisdom of History .......................................................85
Terrorism and Air Passenger Safety .............................................90
The Latest in Privatization and Contracting ..................................93
Dismantling Democratic States .....................................................97
Public Administration with an Attitude .......................................100
Public Organizations, Management, and Innovation .....................103

Book Five: Public Administration as Reform
Hijacking Public Administration .................................................110
Lessons from Government Reform ..............................................112
Some Thoughts on Reform .........................................................115
Real Reform ...............................................................................117
A Brief Essay on the Grotesque Excesses of California School Reform .......................................................120
Measuring Performance in Theory and Practice ..................................... 123
Getting to Green ................................................................................... 129
Spreadsheets, Management, and the Challenges of Public Sector Performance .......... 133

Book Six: Public Administration in the Era of Blurred Boundaries
Public Administration in the Era of Blurred Boundaries ......................... 137
Public Administration and Jurisdiction .................................................. 140
Public Administration, Governance, and the Concept of Universal Jurisdiction .... 143
Quasi-Governmental Organizations ....................................................... 146
Whither Europe: Will the European Union Survive? ............................. 150
Killing Missionaries: Some Lessons ..................................................... 154

Book Seven: All Public Administration is Local
Life among the City Managers ............................................................. 158
The Denial of Local Knowledge and the Assault on Professional Competence .... 163
How Did Local Public Administrators Become “First Responders”? ............... 166

Book Eight: Ethics, Fairness and Professionalism in Public Administration
The Atrophy of Ethics ........................................................................... 171
What About Evil? .................................................................................. 174
Public Administration and Social Equity ................................................. 178
Is Social Equity Class Warfare? ............................................................. 184
Ethics and Contracting-Out ................................................................... 187
Ethics, Contracting-Out, and Qui Tam ................................................. 190
Arthur Andersen, Where Art Thou? ....................................................... 196
Ethics and Privatization ...................................................................... 199
War and the Uneven Strain ................................................................. 203